

ATTY. FRANCIS A. CALATRAVA

Profile

Atty. Francis A. Calatrava is a true-blooded Dabawenyo having been born in Davao City, Island of Mindanao.

His parents, Abundancio L. Calatrava and Lourdes L. Agunod, both hail from Cortes, Province of Bohol.

He is married to Norma Ruste-Calatrava, Presiding Judge of the Municipal Trial Court In Cities, in Digos City, Province of Davao del Sur. They have two (2) children, namely: Ira, a practicing lawyer, and Ivan, a former international flight steward of the Philippine Airlines, and now a businessman.

Atty. Calatrava started his elementary education at the Immaculate Conception of Davao (now University of Immaculate Conception) and was graduated at the Holy Cross of Davao College. He finished his secondary studies at the Ateneo de Davao University, and his college education in the same institution with a degree of Bachelor of Arts, major in Political Science. He obtained his Juris Doctor degree in March 1979 at the College of Law of the Ateneo de Davao University, Cum Laude. He was admitted to the Bar on May 12, 1980.

He is an associate member of the National Defense College of the Philippines Alumni Association being a graduate of the Future Leaders' Program, 9th Class.

Atty. Calatrava joined the government service on July 1, 1977 as a Terminal Operations Assistant of the Philippine Ports Authority, Port of Davao, and after passing the bar, became its Corporate Attorney on July 1980.

On December 2, 1985, he transferred to the Public Attorney's Office (then known as Citizens Legal Assistance Office) as a Trial Attorney, and rose from the ranks to become a District Public Attorney.

Atty. Calatrava was appointed as Regional Public Attorney of Region XI or Davao Region by Pres. Gloria M. Arroyo and took his oath of office on October 13, 2008. He reached his mandatory age of retirement on April 2, 2018, but his service was extended twice by Pres. Rodrigo R. Duterte. A year thereafter, he finally bid adieu to government service.
