

ATTY. JAIME T DE VEYRA MNSA

Atty. Jaime De Veyra, hails from Tanauan, Leyte. After a short stint in the private practice of law, he joined the government sector in 1988 as Corporate Attorney and eventually became the Corporate Secretary of the then Public Estates Authority (now PRA).

In 2003, he joined the Philippine Mining Development Corporation (PMDC) and served in various capacities as Chief Legal Counsel, Corporate Secretary, CEO and is presently its Vice President. He previously worked also, on a part time basis, with the Career Executive Service Board (CESB) and the Philippine Aerospace Development Corporation (PADC) and served as consultant to other private corporations.

Aside from his AB Economics and Bachelor of Law (LLB) degrees from San Beda College, he also has two Masters degrees from the Ateneo Graduate School of Business (Masters in Business Administration/ MBA) and from the National Defense College of the Philippines (Masters Degree in National Security Administration/MNSA). Atty. De Veyra has a Career Executive Service (CES) eligibility granted by the CESB Board and a Career Service Executive eligibility (CESE) granted by the Civil Service Commission. He is also a PRC registered Real Estate Broker .